My dear Sir

I am desired to forward herewith for your information a G. O explaining the policy of the Govt in making appointments in the State and to request you before formulating any scheme involving appointments of additional men or experts for special purposes to examine the resources of the State to provide the additional staff required and if the scheme cannot be given effect to without the appointments I contemplate on a large scale to obtain the instructions I want as to the extent they may be prepared to relax

the rules or whether the scheme should be postponed or introduced by instalments under suitable conditions so that as far as possible the scheme
may be worked with local men. I will be glad if you will also prepare a comprehensive list of men you wish to be trained for various purposes to carry out educational developments in the State in accordance with the policy of the Govt Yours sincerely

5. As stated in another file (appointment of Miss Allen), this is also a case in which the appointment of an outsider to the State service is involved. The importance of training local men and women for the ordinary work of the Country will be impressed on the Inspector General of Education and other officers of Government to avoid the frequency of such appointments which will deprive the subjects of His Highness of the few appointments in the higher services of the State available for them.

Forwarded to the Chief Secretary for favour of suggesting a suitable draft order. The Efficiency Audit Branch should maintain the necessary lists, watch progress and revise the figures and lists once a quarter and bring deficiencies to the notice of Government.
